

WOWQUIZ

ARE YOU THE HOST WITH THE MOST?

Will your guests remember an amazing night of dancing, fine food and fun or will your wedding be unforgettable for the wrong reasons?

1. YOUR WEDDING DAY...

- A. Is all about you and your groom (or maybe just you).
- B. Is your special day that you will share with your guests.
- C. Is the most important event of your life. You're hosting the party of a lifetime!

2. YOU'VE PLANNED THE DAY...

- A. With a huge time gap between the ceremony and the reception so that you are not rushed in any way, leaving your guests idle for 7 hours in the middle of nowhere with nothing to do.
- B. On a prominent day like Mother's Day or Grand Final Day so that it will be remembered.
- C. Carefully with minimal disruption or inconvenience to your guests throughout the whole event.

3. AT THE RECEPTION...

- A. Your guests will just have to be patient! They are not here to stuff their faces, they are here to see you make your grand entrance and listen to every speech, including the one about that time when you were 4 and so cute...
- B. Your decor is breathtaking which means you had to cut back a little on the entertainment. After all how bad can a Barry Manilow impersonator be right?
- C. You ensure that all guests are seated promptly and food is served quickly. You limit the number and length of speeches so that everyone can get on with the dancing and festivities!

4. THE FOOD SERVED...

- A. Is an hour late, cold and tasteless but the bridesmaids look stunning!
- B. Is cocktail style, with very beautifully presented (though microscopic) hors d'oeuvres. It's all the rage these days!
- C. Is plentiful and delicious coming out continually as the evening progresses.

5. YOUR GUESTS ARE EXPECTED TO...

- A. Pay for their drinks (you have provided soft drinks after all) and understand that not all seating arrangements are ideal. Someone has to sit in front of the giant speakers, right?

- B. Be good sports and embrace your outdoor "nature wedding" theme, what are a few bugs and a bit of mud on your heels when you're sharing them with your loved ones! Who needs air conditioning?

- C. Be treated as VIPs, as they are VIP (Very Important People) to you.

6. YOU INVITE...

- A. Members of openly feuding families and seat them together at the same table. Their personal squabbles are not your problem.
- B. Singles without including a 'plus one' on their invitation and put them all on the one table, having a go at playing matchmaker.
- C. All valued family and friends making sure they are able to bring along partners, and seat them with people you know they will be comfortable with.

7. YOU THINK IT IS QUITE REASONABLE TO...

- A. Put your guests to work, the flower arrangements won't move themselves from the church to the reception, and they are there for you aren't they?
- B. Ask closer friends and family to help out, maybe taking turns at flower girl babysitting duties.
- C. Expect that your guests are there to enjoy themselves and you will make sure that happens!

8. YOU SHOW YOUR APPRECIATION TO YOUR GUESTS BY...

- A. Appreciation? Hey, they are lucky they got an invite!
- B. Making sure you thank them in the speeches.
- C. Personally thanking them at the reception as well presenting each with a tasteful bomboniere & thank you card to take home.

MOSTLY A'S – You better make arrangements for a quick getaway out the back exit and an extended honeymoon! They will be gathering to pelt you with the inedible leftovers.

MOSTLY B'S – You are on the right track, try and keep in mind that most guests will be spending quite a bit on your present.

MOSTLY C'S – Your wedding will go down as one of the all time greats! People will be talking about it for ages and the photos doing the rounds on the internet will be complimentary ones!
